[center] Age Of Empires II: The Conquerors (rus. Age of Empires II: Conquerors) is a computer game in the RTS and TBS genres, a continuation of the Age of Empires game. Originally published in 1999 for the PC, it was ported to the Gamecube in 2003. The game uses a new version of the Havok engine, which improved the graphics in the game and added new features. According to the creators, the game is the first real-time strategy game based on motion capture technology.
