In a new video, filmed this week, two Americans tell a group of Cubans that they may be forced into the private sector unless they pay $10,000 as a ransom, complaining that Cuba “knows how to deal with them.” “See what it’s like to be Cuban,” they say in the video, produced by the movie “The Cuba Project” and first broadcast on Tuesday on the website of the independent Spanish-language television channel TeleSUR. “We know how to deal with Cubans, you have money we can extort,” one of the men says. “I want to get an American car, and you want to leave.” The men, who are dressed up as if it is a Halloween party, wear the T-shirts “Buenos Aires is for Cubans” and “Corporación Cubana,” with a jab at their country’s socialist government. The ruse comes a few weeks after Cuban authorities arrested Edwin Roque, a Cuban American identified in news reports as the owner of a car repair service in Miami, who was accused of leading a scheme to extort $18 million from Cubans demanding money to free their relatives in the United States. “That’s why we are filming this,” the two Cubans say. “We are going to turn you in,” the video goes on. “You are going to the private sector, or we’re going to hold you for ransom.” In the video, the Cubans ask the Americans “for help” because “we are not the only ones who have suffered.” “This is the American dream; they used to tell us that if we wanted to leave to do business we could come to the United States,” one of the Cubans said. “But they’ve changed their mind 09e8f5149f

Max Secure Anti Virus Plus

Max Secure Anti Virus Plus is an efficient and reliable protection tool that enables you to guard your computer against a wide range of outside attacks, by performing regular scans on your system and removing the threats before they have time to affect you. The utility is quite simple to work with, requiring minimal previous experience with similar applications, as it features all its functions and options within a compact interface, so you can access them with ease. Max Secure Anti Virus Plus offers three analysis modes, namely 'Quick Scan', 'Full Scan' and 'Custom Scan'. Using the 'Quick Scan', you can check the drive where your operating system is located and verify that no files have been corrupted, while the 'Full Scan' performs a complex analysis of all the drives you select. The 'Custom Scan' is meant to help you target specific files or folders from your PC and make sure they are not infected or do not pose a threat. This feature integrates into your Windows context menu, letting you right-click on an object and choose the 'Scan with Max Secure Anti Virus' option. A popup window will then display the scan results and the security risks it detected, if any, allowing you to clean them. The tool provides you with a 'Scheduler' component that enables you to set up regular system scans, be they 'Quick' or 'Full'. You can choose the interval ('Daily', 'Weekly', 'Hourly') and the precise time, with the possibility to either 'Clean' or 'Log Only' the detected infections. To conclude, Max Secure Anti Virus Plus is a useful and user-friendly piece of software whose main purpose is to protect you and your computer from attacks and infections, such as viruses, trojans, spyware, keyloggers and other forms of malware, cleaning the detected threats, along with other temporary Internet and Recycle Bin files. Quick Scan: This scan only take a few minutes and is perfect if your antivirus has problems with more complex scans. It basically checks your drive and then finishes with a log report. Full Scan: This scan runs for longer and will scan every important file and folder. It is often what is called the full system scan. Please be aware of the long time it takes to complete. Custom Scan: This scan will pick out certain files or folders from your computer and check them for anything untrustworthy. It is usually used by professional antivirus software to check for specific threats. The scan will usually consist of a
