Log in or sign up in seconds. October 6, 2015 6:38pm Nice one, but... The new campaign is a gods-nuff game, but it still requires a lot of time to complete it. The reason why it takes a lot of time is because the main plot relies heavily on that large map, for example, there will be times when you get attacked by the foes before your allies can arrive. And no, I don't have a solution to this. The optimization might help, but it's a matter of luck. Im sorry to be complaining, but this game is also limited by the story and not the level design. And it's not the prettiest at all, either. But it's still fun to play. August 13, 2015 3:40am Good luck with the campaign.. I hope it get upgraded in the future. About the leveling system, you can just level up after every major quest. Just make sure you don't quest while hungry, you can get really sick from it. I'm not sure if all 3rd party expansions are available right now, the can be shared between multiple characters. May 10, 2015 4:43am bff6bb2d33

What is unlikely is if Blizzard will simply remake a game with minor changes, but it's certainly possible. What is definite is that whatever game they are making, it will have the Starcraft II engine as a basis, and the original Starcraft gameplay and aesthetic will most likely be preserved. WOW!!! Is it possible that Blizzard is making a Starcraft II 2? Well if there is one thing I'm very curious about then its definitely a SC2 sequel. I'm really glad they have held off on doing a sequel for such a long time due to the fact that it's just not been something they've wanted to do. I mean if it's anything to go by they do listen to what fans want. I bet I'll be seeing a sequel pretty soon. I think we can assume that it will be a direct sequel to Starcraft 2 rather than the Shadows of the Universe mod but only time will tell. If they do follow the same patterns of a new game every 3 or 4 years then they will likely just call it a new game or something similar, regardless of the fact that it's Starcraft II. You realize that this is a mod right? The entire damn thing is a mod, you shouldn't have bought it. Quote from: RandomJustYou I think we can assume that it will be a direct sequel to Starcraft 2 rather than the Shadows of the Universe mod but only time will tell. If they do follow the same patterns of a new game every 3 or 4 years then they will likely just call it a new game or something similar, regardless of the fact that it's Starcraft II. You are probably right. They might be throwing it on the community to decide whether it should be called Starcraft 2 or not. If it's going to be called Starcraft 3 then they're going to need a different gameplay model anyways. I'm not really interested in it either way. I just don't want the franchise to be devalued more than it already has been. In actual fact many people have come to the conclusion that Starcraft 3 is likely and here's a few reasons why:
