ELDEN RING Role [Elden Lord One of the powerful men in the Lands Between, the highest tier of society is reserved for men of great strength, piety, and wisdom. Elden Lords are honored in their clan's history and culture. They are merchants with high status who travel the Lands Between and rule over their people. Elden Lords gain power through the loyalty of their people, and when they have earned the trust and respect of their people, they may call upon the power of the Elden Ring to solidify their hold on the heart of their nation. The Elden Ring is a ring of command. It acts as a summoner of magick that can be placed on the hands of the wearer. It can be placed on one or two fingers of either hand. Place it on a finger of the opposite hand as well. When a sorceress calls upon the power of the Elden Ring, its power is unleashed and the wearer gains a single spell. They are the absolute masters of their magick, almost invulnerable to attack, and can use their power freely as they see fit. However, when Elden Lords gain a deeper understanding of their magick, they are able to refine their sorcery even further. Elden Lords develop the ability to use the power of the Elden Ring to summon a number of powerful effects, as well as themselves, to aid in battle. The Elden Lord's Item is the Elden Ring. Stored items in your inventory are called 'Rune Stones', and additional Rune Stones can be opened up by special instructions. It is possible to increase the damage of your spells when you deal heavy damage through the power of Runes. There are two types of Runes—Combat Runes and Art Runes. ART RULES Rank Are
