Ram, Leela, Lakshman, Sita, Hanuman, Shiva, Vibhishana, the Asuras, Sakuni and the Pandavas. File photo of West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee. Govind Ranjan Kolkata Published: Monday, April 29, 2014, 17:55 [IST] West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee said corruption and illegal mining were the sources of income of rebels, and she described attacks on innocent villagers as "murders of innocent children". But Congress leaders have rubbished the remarks at a public meeting organised by the TMC-BJD alliance, saying it is the typical jumla ("talk-for-show") of the Chief Minister, who never takes a concrete step to stop violence in the state. The election-bound West Bengal government officially organised the meeting at the newly-built Lok Sabha building here on Tuesday. Citing the government's failure on the issue of development and repression of Maoists, Banerjee said corruption and illegal mining are the main sources of income of the rebels. She described attacks on innocent villagers as "murders of innocent children". Banerjee also spoke about the international relations of the country and said countries like the US, Israel, China and Russia are attacking India. She alleged that the government was "unable" to tackle these forces. The CM said "rebel groups are getting funds from some foreign countries and former
