"I am Slash'EM, an assassin using Roman gauntlets to take down mobs in 3D environments. The game is inspired by Quake and other rpgs and is a first person shooter. It uses a 2D projection style that allows the player to move a bit forward and view the landscape. The projection is done with large maps which makes it possible to explore the game world in detail." When... Dawn rose over the city The morning sun tickles the eyes The moon shines on the night The men and women head to work The trees rustle from the right Birdsong fills the air In the shadows under a tree You crouch behind the tree And your heart beats hard As you keep an eye on this gang Waiting for this moment when they come to rest You crawl out from under the shadows You've caught up with them You leap high in the air and punch them On impact both of you collapse to the floor You see a knife on the ground You reach into your pocket Pull out your concealed weapon Grab the knife you find Stab them both to death You walk up to the both of them You press the button "kill" And you leave their bodies in the street Agent Meat On Foot You find a sea shore Between two cliffs A huge seagull flies overhead You stop in front of a signpost The one point takes you to Where I come from Agent Meat On Boat You find yourself aboard a white ship A fisherman is packing his things He offers to sell you a fish You get into a tiny boat Sinking you swim to a huge ship In the distance you see a yellow A teal that's bigger A giant ungainly monster [The Deep] The Deep You find yourself down at the bottom of the sea You can see the seagull and the other ships But you can't see the other monsters A huge mass of armored tentacles Squirming around It's about to pull a crowd over the railings You climb to the surface Suddenly the teal and yellow appear You're at an aquarium The yellow and teal are giant divers The yellow is a big sea otter It grabs at you Breaths saltwater down your throat The otter pulls you deeper down The yellow looks you up and down

- Best Launch Trailer - How to Make Money In-Game Small Game Dev 09/26/2016 So you thought that you were good at video games. So you thought that you were a handy developer? Well you're in for a surprise. We're going to show you how to make money on your first game. Subscribe to the channel for more awesome content. How to Make Money in-Game: It's time to make money. Alright, just make money. Okay, make money. What? What do you mean? Yes. Well, you just had to start by making money. So, you can get money by triggering events. So you can get money to make more money, right? So, we're going to make a whole bunch of money. Alright, I don't know what you're doing. Don't worry, we don't know what we're doing. But I am pretty sure we don't know what we are doing. Yeah, we're going to make a whole bunch of money. You want to make money, go for it. We're actually taking money to the bank. We have to go to the bank first. Bro, it's not that simple. You think that's easy? Take the money and it's going to work. I don't know how you all make money in video games. You got to make money, call it real currency. I'm waiting for you to blow through your five dollar bill. So how do you make money in video games? You basically show a computer a pretend game. You make something that a computer will see as a game. And this is how that happens. So, if I make a game, I want to start by making a Kickstarter campaign. Then I'll put an engine in there, and start building stuff. And this is what I'm doing. I'm calling this a game, not a dud. Let's make money. Yeah, I want to teach you how to make money. It has to be real currency. So let's start off by making money. And I'm going Neon Blight is a 2D monster shmup with a gothic twist. Ride your lonely Hero-ship to find the evil monsters and their master. Defeat enemies with high powered lasers, projectile attacks, and a few Voodoo curses. There are four modes: Normal, Arcade, Survival, and a difficulty mode that can be either Normal or Hard. There are also a ton of Collectables (think Minikit/Currency) hidden in each stage that can be turned in for extra lives, Bonus Medals, and increased health. You can choose between red and blue bar powerups, but this will not effect the gameplay. Levels are procedurally generated, so if you die, it's a fresh start. There are also two player online competitive modes, Capture the Flag and Missile. Game Features: 4 Difficulty levels (Normal, Arcade, Survival, Hard) 4 game modes (Normal, Arcade, Survival, Hard) 40+ "Voodoo" hits to get multiple shimmies and combos for a Voodoo Hit Weapon upgrades: lasers, bullets, extra health, extra projectile damage, more shots, etc. Level Progression: Enemies get stronger and enemy projectiles get more accurate, so you have to figure out your strategies ahead of time. Online Competitive Modes: Capture the Flag and Missile Want more of this game? Check out Neon Blight: The Animated Film! Ride your lonely Hero-ship to find the evil monsters and their master." Gameplay: In Neon Blight, you are a lone fighter on a quest to take down the Seven Deadly Sins. There are seven deadly sins that the Seven Sins lead the darkness away from. They each have their own sins that need to be destroyed and that is what you are going to try and do. First, you'll have to choose a ship and a weapon. The two weapons you have are your normal laser and your Voodoo.
