- 5 skins to be used in all the projects (Windows XP, Vista, Win 7, Win 8, and Mac) - A unique ribbon for all the platforms - Has a common base and support Qt 5.3.2 - No external libraries - 100% native code - Has a plug-in architecture QtitanRibbon was created by Laurent Bony, the product manager of Nokia Qt, and is a product created by Neemaj Infoway. At the moment, three different versions of QtitanRibbon are available: 1- QtitanRibbon-For-DOTNET.exe is the version of the component that was created for the Microsoft.NET platform. In this case, there are two versions (DOTNET and NET) - the second is just an alternative that does not provide the opportunity to define the theme of the toolbars. 2- QtitanRibbon-For-Qt-3.x.x.exe the version of the component that was created for the Qt 3.x.x platform. Only one version (QT-3.x.x) - the component is the same as the one of the 2nd version, the only difference is that it does not provide support for the choice of the theme of the toolbars. 3- QtitanRibbon-For-Qt-4.x.x.exe version of the component that was created for the Qt 4.x.x platform. There are two versions of this component (QT-4.x.x): desktop and service (non-embedded). All the component versions have in common features such as:

- Integrates fully in all the platforms with support for the "UIElements" - Common base with the project common elements - Display context menus (in all the project themes) - Adjustable sizes of the toolbars - Context menu (in the project themes) - Supports the option to send information to a server
  - Supports the option to configure the menu in a human/machine readable way Worked and implemented... -

QtitanRibbon will be integrated in Qt 5.3.2 - Convenience buttons (in the project themes) - Separators between each tab (in the project themes) - Works
